- (f) We consider that the Maintenance Services provide you with a level of service and support that exceeds our minimum obligations under the Consumer Standards applicable to the Nominated Equipment (see clause 34 of your Contract).
- (g) For example:
 - (i) if we did not supply you the Nominated Equipment in respect of which Maintenance Services are provided, the Consumer Standards set out in clause 34 of your Contract do not apply to us and but for this Service Schedule, we are not required to provide to you services of the same kind as the Maintenance Services; and
 - (ii) if we did supply you with the Nominated Equipment in respect of which Maintenance Services are provided, the Maintenance Services:
 - a) will be provided for the term of this Service Schedule, even if by reason of effluxion of time, the Consumer Standards no longer apply at any time during the term of this Service Schedule;
 - b) will be provided even if the Consumer Standards do not entitle you to receive any remedy, or a remedy of the same kind as the Maintenance Services. For example, even if you were fully acquainted with the condition of the goods supplied to you;
 - c) will be provided at a level of priority that you may not be entitled to under the Consumer Standards (for example, same day response);
 - d) will be provided by a method that you may not be entitled to under the Consumer Standards (for example, verbal assistance, remote access or on-site visit); and

- (i) If you acquire any Equipment from us (whether or not that Equipment is the Nominated Equipment) we will not deny you your rights under the Consumer Standards if they apply to you (see clauses 34 to 37 of the Customer Terms section of your Contract). In particular, if the Consumer Standards apply, we confirm the following:

Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and for compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.

- (j) For the avoidance of doubt, we will not deny you the benefit of any Consumer Guarantees that apply to the supply of the Maintenance Services (if any apply) (see clauses 35, 37 and 40 of the Customer Terms section of your Contract).

Additional Components of the Service: Grade Dependant

- (k) Further particulars relating to the Maintenance Services (such as key inclusions) are dependent upon the Grade of the Maintenance Services acquired. Refer to the relevant Annexure to this Service Schedule for details.

6. Where Repairs are Conducted
